URNER BARRY INTRODUCES NEW POULTRY MARKET REPORTER

Dylan Hughes Joins UB Poultry Division, Reporting on Chicken and Turkey Markets

July 16, 2018, Toms River, NJ –

Urner Barry is pleased to announce that Dylan Hughes has joined the company's Poultry division and will be reporting on the chicken, turkey and related poultry markets.

Hughes will work diligently to uphold Urner Barry's mission to provide timely, accurate, unbiased market information to our customers. His passion for analytics will help him to effectively communicate the complexities that surround current market situations to the benefit of our subscribers.

Senior Vice President Russell Whitman says, "Dylan is a tremendous asset and we are thrilled to welcome him into the fold."

Hughes graduated from Stockton University in New Jersey with a B.A. in Business Studies and is pursuing a master's from Colorado State University.

Hughes added, "I am honored to be a part of this organization with its rich history and long tradition of reporting market conditions to the food and agriculture industry. They are the best in the business and I look forward to contributing to the future success of Urner Barry."
